Inclusion of names inadvertently omitted

21. (1) If it appears to the registration officer that owing to inadvertence or error during preparation the names of any electors have been left out of the roll and that remedial action should be taken under this rule, the registration officer shall-

(a) prepare a list of the names and other details of such electors;

(b) exhibit on the notice board of his office a copy of the list together with a notice as to the time and place at which the inclusion of these names in the roll will be considered, and also publish the list and the notice in such other manner as he may think fit; and

Deletion of names of dead electors and of persons who cease to be, or are not, ordinarily residents

22. If it appears to the registration officer during preparation of the roll that owing to inadvertence or error or otherwise, the names of dead persons or of persons who cease to be, or are not ordinarily residents in the ward have been included in the roll and that remedial action should be taken under this rule, the registration officer shall-

(a) in the form of memorandum signed by the appellant and

(b) presented to the appellate officer within a period of five days of announcement of the decision or sent to that officer by registered post so as to reach him within that period.

(3) The presentation of an appeal under this rule shall not have the effect of staying or postponing any action to be taken by the registration officer under rule 23.

(4) Every decision of the appellate officer shall be final but in so far as it reverses or modifies a decision of the registration officer, shall take effect only from the date of the decision in appeal.

Provided that when an application is rejected by the registration officer, he shall record in writing a brief statement of his reasons for such rejections.
